Sharing Information from the U.S. Marshals Pacific Northwest Violent Offender Task Force (PNVOTF) assisted the Spokane County Sheriff's Office, Sexual Assault Unit (SAU) in arresting a suspect charged with several felony child sexual assault/abuse charges.

###

Accused Child Rapist, arrested in Spokane, Washington.

Spokane, WA.— On June 18th, 2024, at approximately 12:00 PM, 38-year-old Jamell CLOGG was arrested at his residence in the 2300 block of E. 1st Avenue, Spokane, Washington, by the Spokane County Sheriff's Office, Sexual Assault Unit (SAU) and the U.S. Marshals Pacific Northwest Violent Offender Task Force (PNVOTF).

Clogg is accused of raping a 13-year-old girl. He is charged with two counts of Rape of a Child in the Second Degree, two counts of Child Molestation in the Second Degree, Possession of Depictions of a Minor Engaged in Sexually Explicit Conduct in the Second Degree, and Indecent Exposure. The U. S. Marshals PNVOTF developed intelligence that CLOGG was hiding inside the residence and arrested him without incident.

Eastern District of Washington U.S. Marshal Craig Thayer commented, "The partnerships that the United States Marshals Service has with our counterparts in state, local, federal, and tribal law enforcement make possible the excellent results, that are exemplified with this case. Perseverance is often the key to bringing fugitives into custody to answer for the crimes alleged in their warrants."

The U.S. Marshals Pacific Northwest Violent Offender Task Force (PNVOTF) is a U.S. Marshals-led partnership comprised of federal, state, and local law enforcement officers from Washington, Oregon, and Alaska. The task force's primary mission is to locate, arrest and return to the justice system the most violent and egregious federal and state fugitives. US Marshals arrest over 80,000 violent offenders annually.

Outstanding apprehension! 🚔👍

Too bad these aren't federal charges, but at least he is off the street, for now.

Great job!
Now we need a President to close the border, have stricter laws and build another jail so we can lock these losers up and throw away the keys!!
We shouldn't have this many violent offenders roaming the streets.

Put him in prison and KEEP HIM THERE! Unlike the dozens of other repeat felony offenders that get out in days to continue
